As Financial Crimes Grow during the Pandemic, Accounting Groups Address Key Piece of AML Action

As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and the unprecedented sums of relief money moving across the global economy, the threat of financial crimes and malfeasance continues to grow.

The report, "Approaches to Beneficial Ownership Transparency: The Global Framework and Views from the Accounting Profession", contributes to the global conversation as countries grapple with questions regarding the extent to which, and by whom, beneficial ownership information is collected, reviewed and made available. Central to this discussion is the concept of beneficial ownership registers and registries.

IASB issues amendment to IFRS Standard on leases to help lessees accounting for covid-19-related rent concessions

The International Accounting Standards Board (Board) has today issued an amendment to IFRS 16 Leases to make it easier for lessees to account for covid-19-related rent concessions such as rent holidays and temporary rent reductions.

The amendment exempts lessees from having to consider individual lease contracts to determine whether rent concessions occurring as a direct consequence of the covid-19 pandemic are lease modifications and allows lessees to account for such rent concessions as if they were not lease modifications. It applies to covid-19-related rent concessions that reduce lease payments due on or before 30 June 2021.

Access Covid-19-Related Rent Concessions, the amendment to IFRS 16. It is freely and immediately available as part of the IFRS Foundation's covid-19 response.
