NOTICE TO STUDENTS

Nomination for Participation in International CA Students' Conference – 2025

Date – 7th April 2025

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nepal (ICAN) is pleased to inform that Institute is in the process of nominating CAP III level students to participate in 'International CA Students' Conference – 2025' to be hosted by CA Students' Society (CASS) of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka (CA Sri Lanka) scheduled to be held on 29th April 2025 in Colombo, Sri Lanka.

Participation in the Conference would be an opportunity for the students to learn and appreciate the contemporary issues arising in the education sector, along with ways to embrace the revolution in the Accounting Profession and way forward. It will not only be an opportunity to foster your extra capabilities but equally be an opportunity to share and explore diverse socio-cultural environments prevailing in different parts of the world. CAP III level students who are currently in articleship training are eligible for participation in the conference.

Therefore, eligible students interested to participate in the conference should submit their brief profile, an essay with the length between 700 to 1000 words and a power point presentation of 10 minutes on the topic "Importance of Cybersecurity in Accounting Profession – Nepalese Perspective" by sending an e-mail to education@ican.org.np latest by Monday, 14th April 2025. The essay and presentation submitted by students shall be subject to a review by ICAN and shortlisted students will be called for the presentation and interview to be held at ICAN Head Office, Satdobato, Lalitpur, Nepal.

Finally, the top three students will be nominated to participate in the International Conference representing the Institute and the cost in relation to the process of attending the conference shall be borne by the Institute.
