Notice to Student Pre-Articleship Orientation Program

Date: 16 August 2024

The Institute is going to organize 8th Batch of 'Pre-Articleship Orientation Program' for the students who have passed CA CAP II level examination of June 2024. The purpose of this program is to enhance the skills and capabilities of students going to pursue three years articleship training by providing proper orientation and training on personality development, communication skills, professional behavior and culture at audit firms and clients' offices.

All CAP II level passed out students must participate in this orientation program compulsorily as s/he needs to submit certificate of participation along with articleship deed to the Institute at the time of registration in CAP III level.

This orientation program will be organized physically in Kathmandu. If any student is unable to attend the program due to reasons beyond his/her control, s/he shall be provided with live broadcast link of the program to participate virtually. However, such student needs to submit application about his/her problem with valid justification at education@ican.org.np.

All eligible students are required to register through the below link to confirm their participation:
