Notice to Students Availability of Recorded Classes

Date – 17th July 2023

The Institute, with a view to support continuous study of the students pursuing different levels of Chartered Accountancy course has now launched a platform to provide recorded classes free of cost. This platform comprises video classes of different subjects of Chartered Accountancy Course of CAP II and CAP III level. Students willing to go through the recorded classes should access to 'Student Login' and click on 'Virtual Classes' to avail the classes at any time of their convenience for respective level of subjects.

To start with, the Institute has decided to make available recorded classes of a few chapters of various subjects of CAP II and CAP III level which will be updated on regularly basis. Further, new recorded classes will be uploaded on first week of every month to keep the recorded classes bank sufficient for study and reference of all the students. This platform also consists of comment section where students can raise their queries of specific classes and they will get the solution of their queries over there.

Thank you and wish you all the best for your learning.
